Break This!

Reducing Crime Through Bylaws

Date: Tuesday, June 2, 2020
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
Whistler, BC – LIBOA Conference 2020 Special
Hilton Whistler Resort & Spa
4050 Whistler Way

*The must-have course for the future of bylaw enforcement:
kinder, gentler but firmer crime reduction*

Local governments should emphasize bylaw services over police services to cost-effectively reduce crime. Kinder, gentler regulatory enforcement makes our communities safer, cleaner, and better. Such enforcement also helps front-line police officers focus on more serious crime.

This new course from GovLaw has been developed specifically for the 2020 LIBOA Conference. You will learn how to target the Top 10 crime-related activities within local government jurisdiction.

Break This! will cover:

1. Business license suspension or revocation to close criminal "hot spots".
2. Long form informations ("LFI") to prosecute repeat offenders.
3. Entry and search warrants to access and monitor non-compliant properties.
4. Civil injunctions to shut down outlaw motorcycle gangs ("OMG") and their clubhouses in residential neighborhoods.
5. Restitution and clean-up orders for graffiti and unsightly premise offenders.
6. Short-notice civil injunctions to remove and prevent illegal tent cities or unlawful occupations.
7. "Last-chance" catch and release orders on Dangerous Dogs.
8. Consent orders to prohibit nuisance cannabis activities.
9. Public prosecutions to protect the environment from unlawful tree cutting.
10. Training to empower bylaw and police officers on regulatory enforcement.
